

Language for Learning in key stage 3 (2000)

This booklet updates the earlier materials and suggests how to put in place a coordinated whole school approach to language learning. It offers a practical framework of learning objectives for 11-14 year olds, to help teachers of all subjects to focus on language use in their lessons. There are also many examples of practical tasks set in different subjects which support the learning objectives.

To access the whole document please click on the link below:

Language for Learning in key stage 3 \(2000\)

